

XSTAT[®]

Hemostatic Device

The Breakthrough Treatment for Non-Compressible Hemorrhage

- Rapidly expanding sponges stop bleeding in seconds
- Syringe-like applicator for fast, easy application into deep, narrow wounds
- Indicated for treatment of junctional wounds in the groin or axilla and narrow entrance extremity wounds in the arm or leg
- Developed in collaboration with US Special Forces
- Recommended by the Committee for Tactical Combat Casualty Care (TCCC) for deep narrow tract junctional wounds
- X-ray detectable markers embedded on each sponge
- Available in two sizes: XSTAT 30 and XSTAT 12
- Numerous safe and successful XSTAT treatments by military and civilian professionals

REV MED X

+1-503-218-2172 • revmedx.com

XSTAT® 30

- 30mm outer diameter applicator body
- Approximately 92 minisponges
- For larger exit wound cavities

XSTAT® 12

- 12mm outer diameter applicator body
- Approximately 38 minisponges
- For small entrance wounds, small caliber bullets and stab wounds